FREE BIRDS!

Yes, you did read that correctly! At the 2004 Show we are literally giving away quality birds. This is how it will work:-

The fifteen exhibitors in the Junior, Beginner and Novice sections, (that is fifteen in total not fifteen in each section), who bench the most birds will be able to choose a bird from a selection donated by members of the Show Committee. We have been reliably informed that we are talking quality birds!

A notice listing the top fifteen exhibitors, plus a few reserves, will be posted outside the Show Office on Saturday afternoon. The person at the top of the list has first choice, the second next and so forth. Where exhibitors have benched the same number of birds, a draw will take place in the show office before the list is posted.

The selection of birds will take place on the Sunday morning at 11am, so if you are one of the lucky ones make sure you have a good look at the birds earlier on! If one of the winners is not present we will move down the list and, if necessary, into the reserves. A sticker will be placed on the cage with the winner's name. The cage is not part of the prize, so birds will be boxed up at lifting time.

This is a great opportunity to pick up a quality outcross, so start sorting the birds and fill in the entry form!

1. This show is held under the Show Rules of the Budgerigar Society.
2. The exhibitors may state a price (excluding cage) on entry form at which they wish to sell their exhibits in normal (ie not sales) classes. Birds not for sale can be marked 'NFS'. Sales must be effected through the Show Secretary before 3.30pm Sunday. In the event of more than one claimant, birds will be sold to the highest bidder at 4.00pm Sunday. Any excess of the price stated on the entry form will be equally divided between the Society and the seller.
3. The organisers reserve the right to appoint extra judges if necessary.
4. Birds entered in wrong classes are entirely at owner's risk. Entries unaccompanied by entry fees cannot be accepted. If birds are not sent, entry fee will be forfeited. No alterations can be allowed on any entry form after they are received by the Show Secretary.
5. All birds to be lifted under the supervision of the Show Management. Lifting time 4.30pm Sunday 14th November 2004.
6. The officials will not be responsible for errors should they occur in the schedule, catalogue or award sheet. Prices of birds as per entry forms.
7. The officials will make arrangements for the care of all specimens sent for exhibition, but will not be responsible for any loss or damage to the birds, cages, boxes, etc. that may happen from any cause whatsoever during the exhibition, or to and from the exhibition. Exhibitors may send their exhibits with confidence as most careful arrangements will be made for the proper care of all exhibits sent. All exhibits are entered at owner's risk.
8. No person shall be allowed to remove from the staging any exhibit except in the presence of a show official. This rule will be enforced whilst the birds are being staged and during the Show.
9. Cages must be entered with seed in. Water should be given by the exhibitor anytime after judging is completed.
10. Photographing of exhibits is permissible, but under no circumstances should the cages be touched or the exhibits removed from the staging.
11. No leaflets to be included in the catalogue, unless prior authorization has been given by the show committee.
12. The officials of the Show reserve the right of adjudicating on any matter not covered by the above rules.

AT LIFTING TIME

1. Please, you must not, so do not, remove any exhibit from the staging before lifting time. This could be the most crucial time of the Show!

2. You should have received your entry form, if not, collect and check.
3. You may collect your own birds, then either follow step 4 or 5, depending on the size of your team.
4. If you can carry all birds in one go, make your way to the exit point, form an orderly queue and have your birds booked out in turn, at one of the booking out tables.
5. OR, if your team is large, collect all of your birds in a neat pile away from the exit, so that all of the cage labels are visible. Find a pair of booking out stewards who will check your birds and sign the entry form. Then one steward will escort you and some of your birds to a separate exit; this will be done as many times as is necessary until all your team is out of the show hall. The other steward will stay with your remaining birds in the hall. As the last of your team leave the hall, the steward will hand over your entry form to the security person on the exit.
6. Official booking out stewards will have badges on, or similar.

We are trying to ease the congestion always made by 'those other fanciers' at lifting times. Please take your time and if you can spare an hour to help tidy up after the show we would be grateful.

SALES OPPORTUNITY!

The sales section has always been one of the main attractions of the Show. To many it's the first port of call.

There's no doubt about it, this is the place to sell your surplus stock.

Buyers know that the birds almost invariably come from serious breeders who have showing in mind.
